Reviews

This type of publication is every thing and helped me seeking ahead and much more. It usually fails to charge too much. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Not illustrated. 1893 Excerpt: .before his death he said he had left his money to the poor of Collingwood. I suggested that the money should be left more de finitely, as trusts of that kind were sometimes frittered away. In May he said he had made up his mind to leave his property in charity. I said, What about your family? and he said, They have enough, and the like of that. On Saturday, July 9, I told him I was going on a visit to Geelong, and he asked ine straight if I thought he was going to die this time; because, he said, if I am I will settle the deposit money and the will. I told him I did OP 24, not think he was going to die, but that he had a bad cold, and his age was against him. He said he wanted to leave something to the Little Sisters of the Poor, and I said the Rev. Mother had suggested that it would be a nice thing for him to give the altars for the new church at 1 ort Melbourne, for which a Protestant was giving a stained glass window. Soon after Easter he had told me he would not leave any money behind, but as soon as he felt he was going to die. he would transfer his deposit to current account and then get rid of it. He added, But I have not as much as people think--only a few hundreds....
