Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The School Republic in Indian Schools The rules for the Indian School Service, approved by the Secretary of the Interior, November 1, 1904, and now in force contain the following provisions relating to the general scope and object of the education of the Indian children by the Government of the United States: 1. The preparation of Indian youth for the duties, privileges, and responsibilities of American citizenship is the purpose of the governmental plan of education. This implies training in the industrial arts, the development of the moral and intellectual faculties, the establishment of good habits, the formation of character, and preparation for citizenship. The development of this plan should be through the medium of permanent and well-directed efforts. 3. These schools should be conducted upon lines best adapted to the development of character and the formation of habits of industrial thrift and moral responsibility, which will prepare the pupil for the active responsibilities of citizenship. In order to carry out more fully and effectually this clearly expressed purpose of the general government to prepare...
