2017. Soft Cover. Condition: New. Collector Bookstore is a retailer of new books located in Leavenworth, Kansas. We specialize in price guides and reference books for the antiques and collectibles industry. Approach Antiques & Collectibles Like an Expert This vibrant and visual antiques and collectibles guide is second-to-none when it comes to delivering the details, photographic examples, and expert insight about some of the most common and excitingly obscure, items found within the market today. Where Antique Trader Antiques & Collectibles 2018 Price Guide separates itself from other similar guides is its balanced approach. The variety of categories represented, color photos (equaling more than 4,000), current values, and detailed item descriptions help to identify and assess the items you come across while antiquing, those you already own, and others found on your wish list. In addition, the informative category introductions, Editor Eric Bradley's annual list of 'moving and shaking' categories in collecting and marketplace trends to consider, and a few new features in this edition equip and empower you to take your appreciation and understanding of antiques and collectibles to new levels. New for 2018: Introduction to Consigning At Auction: An article by Antique Trader Print Editor Karen Knapstein about understanding the consignment process, selecting the best approaches for you and the items you have to consign, and consignment tips from experts in the field. Auction Consignment Directory: Contact information for companies serving people looking to consign items. The directory is arranged alphabetically by state. Expanded Top Lot Listings: Throughout the book exceptional lots are showcased in detailed photos and details. New categories: Postwar Design, Harry Potter, Copper items, and Pinbacks. This new edition serves as a gateway into collecting interests you may never have explored, were aware of but had forgotten about, and a supportive ally in your search...
