Mary Sage Nguyen Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 126 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.3in. The Malevolent Twin is the story of a wayward wicked twin with destructive intentions. The Malevolent Twin, is an horror-fantasy thriller, that leads the reader along a dark and suspenseful narrative journey. Avery Tran is ordinary in every way except one: her friend Venice. Since she was a young girl Avery was the only one who could see Venice. Avery would describe her as her own alter ego. As Avery got older, Venice began to appear in front of Avery wearing obscene clothing, mocking and harassing her for her frumpy style and average looks. Eventually, Avery started to wonder what Venice truly was. Usually imaginary friends leave after childhood is over. Her curiosity leads her to an abandoned ancient mobile home, where her parents had buried a stillborn, then to a wise old exorcist who failed to successfully exorcise Venice, then finally to a quirky middle aged psychic. All the trouble starts when Avery wakes up in a swingers club. Having no recollection of how she ended up there, Avery starts to think it is Venices doing, after discovering herself dressed and made up to look like Venice. Soon after, a neighbors dog goes missing and a murder scene appears at her work place. Avery confronts Venice about these heinous acts and learns what she already suspected: it was Venice, controlling her body, who had committed the crimes. Frantic to stop Venice, Avery starts to handcuff herself to the bed and searches for a way to rid herself of Venice entirely. The quirky psychic, Pennie Apples, helps her figure out what is really going on, but it comes too late. Venice murders someone very close to Avery, who feels obliged to turn herself in. In the...
