

The Book of Dhaka: A City in Short Fiction (Paperback)

By Anwara Syed Haq, Moinul Ahsan Saber, Syed Manzoorul Islam

Comma Press, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Dhaka is the world's tenth largest city with a population of more than 18 million people. We will bring ten unique short stories from this overwhelming, vibrant, capital city to English-reading audiences in the next installation of our popular Reading the City series. Dhaka is the capital city of Bangladesh, which emerged as a nation state in 1971 after a violent struggle for independence from West Pakistan. Bangladesh and Dhaka have a very complex political and social history and an incredibly rich and varied cultural inheritance. Comma are very excited to bring a host of short stories in translation to a new audience.
