

Abominble Grace (Paperback)

By Rev Donn Arlyn Crail

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It has become common for some persons to sum up their their attitude toward gay and lesbian persons by saying, hate the sin, love the sinner. What they believe is that it is love to want other persons to become what they approve. That is not love! Abominable grace, is amazing grace - true grace, and as amazing as any other grace that God bestows. It is an abominable grace to persons who deny it, resent it, and resist it, as the elder brother resented the grace given the prodigal son. This book is about those GLBT persons who know, or may come to know, this grace. It is written for them, about them and to a large extent by them because it contains much of their voice, their story, and their experience. One of the voices heard in these pages is that of David Dean Bottrell, a successful actor and screenwriter. I remember having this epiphany. I was living in New York City, and I was walking down Columbus Avenue, sort of mindlessly window-shopping. I wasn t thinking any...
