Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This person is not even human. It s impossible for me to diagnose the injury or illness of such a structure as his! With these words and a worried frown, Doc Smithers sums up the case of the strange creature that lay on Ron Barron s bed. For the boy, Clonar, is like nothing earth s medical books have ever cataloged. And the day Ron Barron found him, staggering away from the wrecked metal disk that lay hidden near Longview, is one that put earth s existence in jeopardy! In SON OF THE STARS, Raymond Jones has written of a forthright friendship between a young castaway from space and his earthly counterpart. How a cold and suspicious military, recognizing Clonar only as an alien from an astonishingly advanced civilization, turns friendship into treachery that threatens earth s existence, makes this an electrifying story with a thought-provoking theme. In scenes uncomfortably vivid, you ll meet soldiers and citizens of a typical American city; people like calculating General Gillispie and frightened Mrs. Barron, whose reactions to an interplanetary situation bring the world to the brink of destruction. Clonar s words, They re coming to destroy your world! refer to a planet whose wars and strife might shortly spread to other worlds. Climaxed with a scene of power and drama unmatched in science fiction, SON OF THE STARS is a breath-taking book you won t put down until the very last page - and won t be able to forget until men reach the stars and learn for themselves!.
