By West Virginia University

Forgotten Books, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Monticola, 1915 In September 1889. Mr. Lakin became the partner of D. E. Offutt of Oak land, Md in a mercantile business carried on at Terra Alta, W. Va., under the firm name of Offut and Lakin. He had full charge of the business until 1909, when he gave up his work to enter upon his duties as member of the State Board of. Control, and was succeeded by his brother Finney L. Lakin as man ager. The business was successful from the beginning and is now conducted in a substantial three story brick building. From a strictly mercantile busi ness at the beginning, the firm soon branched out into business in coal, timber. And other lines. And now owns large acreages of timber land in West Virginia, Virginia and Arkansas. In connection with his business success mr. Lakin naturally became interested in banking. He was elected President of the First National Bank of T erra Alta and also became one of the, Directors of the Terra Alta Bank. He has always shown a lively interest in political...
