

The 4th Marking Period: A Memoir of an African American Male Guidance Counselor (Paperback)

By Jr. MA Richard L. Wilson

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The 4th Marking Period: A Memoir of an African American Male Guidance Counselor is a personal day to day diary of events, struggles, fears, temptations, and experiences of a Black man working as a guidance counselor in a predominately white middle school. The book gives you a glimpse of author s experiences in two ways: first you will experience his interactions with his students. Second, you will get a first hand account of what is called invisibility. What is invisibility? Purchase and read the book to find out.

READ ONLINE
[1.28 MB]

Reviews

It is an awesome publication which i actually have ever read through. it had been writtern really properly and valuable. I found out this book from my i and dad recommended this pdf to discover.

-- Doyle Schmeler

This book is definitely not simple to begin on studying but quite fun to see. I actually have read and that i am sure that i will gonna read through yet again once again in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Brennan Koelpin