Excerpt from Forest Worker, Vol. 7: November, 1931 Records of the number of days per month on which the relative humidity was below 30 indicated that the lowest humidity prevailed in the months of October, November, December, and March. During the year the department acquired two fire trucks having 250-gallon water tanks and two with 600-gallon tanks, and equipped all division squad trucks with 120-gallon water tanks in unit with Barton pumps. It also installed twelve -gallon water tanks at advantageous locations on brush-covered areas throughout the county where water was not immediately available. A lookout tower was constructed on county property on Pacoima Peak. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
