By Deborah A. Levine

SIMON SCHUSTER, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Can their friendships take the heat? A trio of mothers and daughters will find out when they sign up for a cooking class from a famous chef in the first book of the Saturday Cooking Club series--it's mother-daughter bonding and so much more! Liza and Frankie have always been best friends. But when new girl Lillian arrives from San Francisco, suddenly there's a crowd. Especially after the trio is grouped together for a big sixth-grade social studies project--can they put aside their animosity long enough to succeed? When Liza suggests they all take a cooking class with the chef from her favorite cooking show for the project, the girls are on board, but they need an adult to take the class with them. It seems like the perfect opportunity to snag some quality time with their overscheduled, overstressed mothers. If they can convince them to sign up! Several headaches and close calls later, the girls at last find themselves in Chef Antonio's kitchen with their mothers in tow--but the drama is only just beginning!.
