Trevor Stott-Briggs. Paperback. Condition: New. 434 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 1.0in. At the age of 62, TSB suffered a life-changing sporting accident which turned him into a quadriplegic but, thankfully, not a cabbage. With his brain working overtime to compensate for an immobile body, he convinced himself that it was Mind over Matter and that he would get back on his feet again despite a less-than-positive prognosis by his doctors. Every chapter is a new story with all sorts of memory-jerkers and mind-links to music, movies, TV shows, cars, books and anything else that caused a blip in his brain. He has stories about work, his wife, kids, friends, flash-backs to younger days, life, the universe and (almost) everything. Dont worry, he does also (sometimes) talk about what he did every day for 5 years in lots of physiotherapy clinics. But first, its important to consider the following questions: - Who drives the fastest invalid carriage in the world - How many Margaritas should be consumed before carrying a dead body across a beach - How many urologists does it take to sort out one set of fishing tackle - What is an LBM and how does this relate to the capacity of an adult diaper - How do you conquer the world from a wheelchair - Which is right and which is left - What is 420 and the difference between a coffee house and a coffee shop - What is a paraproxodian, a neologism and the true meaning of exacerbated - Who is watching over us and is the truth really out there - What is the top speed of a Zimmer Frame - Why is motivation a four-letter word TSB writes with a pithy, sometimes poignant but often self-deprecating style, not afraid to laugh at himself...
