

The Code: It s time for a new kind of man (Paperback)

By Carl Beech

Lion Hudson Plc, United Kingdom, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. This is a unique initiative to harness the energy and aspiration of men. Carl Beech noticed that men are attracted to the notion of a code of honour, and with colleagues from Christian Vision for Men started to formulate such a code. The twelve statements include: Jesus is my Captain, Brother, Rescuer and Friend; I will unashamedly make Him known through my actions and words; I will not cheat in anything, personal or professional; I will look away from the gutter, but be prepared to pull people out of it; I will keep my body and mind fit and free from any addictions; I will use my strength to protect the weak and stand against the abuse of power; I will protect the world that God has made; If I fail I will not give up. He never gives up on me. The plan is to expand these statements into a short, punchy chapter, making this a `back pocket book which men can quickly refer to as a source of inspiration and encouragement.

This book is definitely not simple to begin on studying but quite fun to see. I actually have read and that i am sure that i will gonna read through yet again once again in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
