Instead she took a circuitous route—first as a flight attendant, then in the Peace Corps—with some unforeseen setbacks: a rare cancer diagnosis at age 31. With a survivor's renewed sense of urgency, Blackburn finally found the courage to take the leap to Los Angeles and pursue her life as a performer, or at least as a contestant on The Dating Game. PIT To LAX, My Story Worthy Life is a series of memories about loving, losing, and letting go, which will inspire you and stay with you long after you've left its last pages.
