As the note on a preceding page sufficiently states the circumstances that have led to the publication of the sermon which follows. it is not necessary that I should speak of them. A few words, however, respecting the subject discussed, and the manner in which it is here treated, may not be out of place. No well-informed man can be ignorant of the fact that a wonderful change is gradually taking place in the Christian world. This great movement had its origin in the Reformation accomplished, or rather commenced, in the sixteenth century, by Luther, Calvin, and their coadjutors. That astonishing moral revolution, however great its blessings, was far from emancipating the Church of Christ from...
