ALL IN: PLAYING THE FOOL (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Will Reavis is the last man standing. All of his lifelong friends are settling down, and seem nauseatingly happy with their significant others. Even his little sister Jules recently married, taking off with Will's best friend. While Dylan and Jules are away on their honeymoon, they leave their penthouse apartment and expensive vehicles in Will's care. After a night on the town with his new wingman, criminal defense attorney Joe Montgomery, Will meets the woman of his dreams. Knowing a beautiful woman like Lacy would never go for a normal, nothing-special guy like him for more than a one-night stand, Will lets her believe that all of Dylan's riches are his own. Lacy Pierce is newly single and not looking to settle down anytime soon. Why would she do something so foolish, when she knows how things always end? Her own father had affairs on her mother, and her famous football playing ex-boyfriend Zack Bradford cheated on her repeatedly during the year they were together. Will seems like Zack's opposite, and even better, he looks safe. When she finds out the cute, unassuming, intelligent guy is actually the first man that can show her the wild passion she's been missing out on, she reconsiders her no-commitment rule. That is until she finds out Will has lied to her, and only sees her as a one-night fling. Fate eventually steps in to bring the two back together. When Lacy agrees to help out in her father's law firm during the summer, she has no idea that the young attorney she'll be working for is none other than Joe Montgomery, Will...
