Welcome to Copperwood Falls. The dust had barely settled after my skirmish at Galloway Asylum and there I was looking forward to some downtime, maybe even a promotion. What I got instead was a covert assignment and an urgent warning from on high: Get out of the city. Vanish. Go underground. So I did. And after a quick, or should I say bad trip down the wrong side of memory lane I found myself holing up in a sleepy rural town on a strictly cloak and dagger mission. Copperwood Falls. Think rolling forested hills, white picket fences and lush apple pie - with a maggot wriggling under the crust. A haunted town where the woods whisper at night and demons come calling. A place where the shadows are restless and almost nothing is as it seems. Catching on to the town s dirty little secrets didn t take long, but I d never imagined, not for one minute, exactly what opening the lid on that particular Pandora s Box was going to bring.
