But when Kay left the city-and Sullivan- to work in LA, their untried romance fell apart. Then Kay returned to Denver: older, wiser and still very much in love with her former partner. Sullivan tried to deny his need for her, but he knew they were a winning combination. The old electric magic was back, and not just in the control room. The sizzling repartee that kept the public listening was even more effective in private. When Sullivan talked, Kay could stay tuned in forever. Tyrants rise and fall. But the undead armies of the night are eternal.
