Since her husband passed, her once-thriving canine search and rescue business has hit the end of its leash. When her mother, Donna, asks for help investigating her fiancE, Cecil s, disappearance, Ruby leaves no bone unturned, roaming outside the boundaries of the law. But she s caught faster than a three-legged cat at a dog show. With her tail tucked firmly between her legs, she and her remaining cadaver dog, a Weimaraner named Sasha, return to her tiny hometown of Dead Buried. It s a Texas speed trap with more buried secrets than citizens. Determined to help her mother find the truth about Cecil s disappearance, Ruby and Sasha begin an investigation of Dead Buried s crazy characters, digging up more trouble than a dog full of fleas. But without a body, it s devilishly hard to pin down the murderer. Can she find Cecil and get out of the doghouse alive? More importantly, can she keep from eating too much pie on the job? No Bones is a barking good time. Full of Texas sass, small town charm, and plenty of downhome cooking, the Dead Buried Mysteries are cozies with bite. Dog bite.
