Building Positive Character: 50 Tips on Empowerment, Overcoming, and Success

By Joe Egan

Egan Publications Inc. Paperback. Condition: New. 64 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. Positive Character: Why Some Have It and Others Don't Your personality is your distinctive group of emotional traits. It is who you are. Character is what you do with yourself. Character is about morals and ethics; it's what you do even when no one is looking. Combining personality and character is to join thinking and doing. This book combines the thinking personality with characters doing to help you successfully navigate everyday events, emotions, and reactions. When trouble strikes, we react in one of two ways. Option one: we do what is most comfortable and live in denial. This option is frequently chosen when dealing with conflict, failure, mistakes, worry, and even narcissists. The other reaction is not as comfortable because it challenges us to stand on a principled course. To do so involves courage, assertiveness, empathy, intuition, perseverance, and trust. To live in harmony with the good and bad in life we need to make good choices. Here is a partial list of the things this book will teach you to prioritize: Assertiveness Attitude Conflict Courage Failure Happiness Hope Humor Intuition Leadership Love Luck Mind Rest Narcissism...
