They buried the king in his chief city, Samaria, and his son reigned in his place. G. Was his son good, mama? M. No, my dear; the kings of Israel were all so bad, that at last, after a great many years, God sent Shalmaneser, king of Assyria, to make war upon them, and he conquered and took them away prisoners into his country. G. And then what happened to them, mama? M. They never became a nation any more, my love, for Shalmaneser sent his own subjects to live in their empty cities when he carried the people away; and the Israelites at length grew so mixed up with the Assyrians, that in these days we can scarcely see any signs left of what was once the great and powerful kingdom of Israel. G. Was Judah destroyed as well? M. Not then, my love; but many years after, Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came and took Jerusalem, and the king of Judah and all his people prisoners, because they would not keep the commandments of God; and though they returned to their city and country after some time, yet they never grew such a great nation as they had been before they were taken captive. ANOTHER GOOD KING. Mama. My dear child, I have a little story to tell you, which I think will please you; it is about a good king of Judah, called Hezekiah; will you come and sit on my...
