Mr. Hubbard does not tire.of saying that the inspiration for his work came from a knowledge of William Morris and his Kelmscott Press. And from lessons lovingly taught and lovingly learned, was established the Roycroft Shop, an institution he is proud of, and justly so. jtThere, are being sown the seeds of an ideal socialism. Not the Socialism of the agitators, that is synonymous with Anarchism, and so disorder, rioting and disturbance, but the Socialism of Equality, with a high ideal for the basis of this Equality. This is the work that Elbert Hubbard is doing, and there is room for All And if I have seen fit to undertake a work on the lines marked out by men who have been of real value to the world, why would I hesitate to acknowledge the source of my inspiration? The Erudite is modeled after The Philistine, but does not and can not imitate JK It is but a beginning of the work I am inclined to do. from the West. NAVAJO BLANKETS.
