THE GREATNESS IN YOU is written with the sole objective to inspire, motivate, encourage and empower you to reach your optimum potential while discovering unlimited possibilities in your life. Who will you be and how will you be when you finally discover your purpose and reach your full potential? This book equips you with the right mindset, principles and strategies as you seek the answers to this question. The 14 principles enshrined in this book are carved in a manner that makes them simple, practical and applicable in anyone s life. By weaving these principles into the fabric of your life, you give yourself the opportunity to discover more of your potential, explore more of your talents and move closer to achieving your goals. Illustrating these principles with captivating life-stories of (Billy Selekane, John De Joria, Gillian Barbara Lynne, Jack Ma, Bill McDermott, K.K. Combi and President Sirleaf Ellen Johnson) the few and far between individuals in the world who have applied these principles then stood out and did outstanding things with their lives. This book will guide you...
