DROPPED THREADS 2: MORE OF WHAT WE AREN T TOLD (PAPERBACK)

Random House USA Inc, United States, 2003. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The idea for Dropped Threads: What We Aren t Told came up between Carol Shields and longtime friend Marjorie Anderson over lunch. It appeared that after decades of feminism, the women s network still wasn t able to prevent women being caught off-guard by life. There remained subjects women just didn t talk about, or felt they couldn t talk about. Holes existed in the fabric of women s discourse, and they needed examining. They asked thirty-four women to write about moments in life that had taken them by surprise or experiences that received too little discussion, and then they compiled these pieces into a book. It became an instant number one bestseller, a book clubs favourite and a runaway success. Dropped Threads, says Anderson, tapped into a powerful need to share personal stories about life s defining moments of surprise and silence. Readers recognized themselves in these honest and intimate stories; there was something universal in these deeply personal accounts. Other stories and suggestions poured in. Dropped Threads would clearly be an ongoing project. Like the first volume, Dropped Threads 2 features stories by well-known novelists and journalists such as Jane Urquhart, Susan Swan and Shelagh Rogers, but also many excellent new writers including teachers, mothers, a civil servant, a therapist. This triumphant follow-up received a starred first review in Quill and Quire magazine, which called it compassionate and unflinching. The book deals with such difficult topics as loss, depression, disease, widowhood, violence, and coming to terms with death. Several stories address some of the darker sides of motherhood: - A mother describes how, while sleep-deprived and in a miserable marriage, she is shocked to find infanticide crossing her mind. - Another woman...
