Paperback. Condition: New. 86 pages. This collection or anthology of stories by a single author are not your ordinary short stories. The terror here exists in the mind of the reader. These stories lead you to the brink, and then its up to you. What are your fears From manslaughter to losing love to becoming homeless. Or perhaps falling in love with a ghost From the unexplainable to the unthinkable; these are stories of normal life gone awry. Sometimes tragic, often comedic, always thought provoking. Short stories and twisted tales. In the fantasy tale, The Nine Lives of the Anti Morris, a Viet Nam vet obsesses over an evil stray cat which routinely victimizes his own precious cat. In the comedic Irish Tale, A Matter of Perspective, an Irish farmer, with much trepidation, falls in love with a city girl for whom in the end he simply cannot betray his wife. In The Drill, a young boys fear and horror are realized when a wicked nun steps over the boundary between discipline and child abuse. In the fantasy A Fat Man Runneth, an obese boy uses unusual methods learned from the Sasquatch to win a race, and hopefully the heart of his true love. In the fantasy Ninas Place, a young mans imagination is seduced by the ghostly apparition of a woman with a child, leading him to yet unknown realms of love. A Musicians Tale is a fantasy love story of a young mans love for his beautiful saxophone pitted against the love of his beautiful wife. In A Junkmans Christmas, a homeless man finds shelter and perhaps an old love within the fury of a Philadelphia blizzard at Christmas. In Room 3B, a tenant in a Paris apartment building is haunted by ghostly sounds in the night emanating...
