lulu.com. Paperback. Condition: New. 138 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. Do you know who your child is socializing with outside the home? Are you protecting your child from gang activity through taking positive actions, such as monitoring their activities, fostering close relationships with them, and using positive discipline strategies? Parents play a pivotal role in keeping young people out of gangs. Most parents think not my child and lack information about gangs. Gangs are groups of children, adolescents and young adults who share a common identity and are involved in wrongful or delinquent activities. Most gang members tend to be adolescents or young adults, however, recent trends indicate that children are being recruited into gangs at a much earlier age, some when they are in elementary school. Traditionally, gang activity has been confined to cities but gangs are no longer just in large cities, they also exist in smaller towns and rural areas. Gangs can include people of every gender, race, culture and socioeconomic group. Did you know... There were an estimated 29,400 gangs and 756,000 gang members throughout 3,500 jurisdictions across the United States. Today's gangs are very sophisticated, crossing state lines to establish groups and recruit members as young as 10 years old in communities across the country. Gangs use children because they know that whatever a child under thirteen does, they cannot go to jail. 32% of all the nation's cities, suburban towns and rural areas experienced gang problems. Gangs are one of the leading factors in the growth of violent crimes in recent years both on and off school property. Gang involvement puts your child at risk of being arrested, getting badly hurt or even being killed. Gang involvement usually includes alcohol and drug use. Your child's involvement in a...
