The Compassionate Instinct: The Science of Human Goodness (Paperback)

By -

WW Norton Co, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. In these pages you will hear from Steven Pinker, who asks, Why is there peace? ; Robert Sapolsky, who examines violence among primates; Paul Ekman, who talks with the Dalai Lama about global compassion; Daniel Goleman, who proposes constructive anger ; and many others. Led by renowned psychologist Dacher Keltner, the Greater Good Science Center, based at the University of California in Berkeley, has been at the forefront of the positive psychology movement, making discoveries about how and why people do good. Four times a year the center publishes its findings with essays on forgiveness, moral inspiration, and everyday ethics in Greater Good magazine. The best of these writings are collected here for the first time. A collection of personal stories and empirical research, The Compassionate Instinct will make you think not only about what it means to be happy and fulfilled but also about what it means to lead an ethical and compassionate life.

Reviews

An incredibly amazing ebook with perfect and lucid answers. It is written in basic terms and never difficult to understand. It's been written in an exceptionally basic way and it is only right after I finished reading this ebook in which in fact modified me, affect the way I really believe.

-- Beverly Hoppe

Extremely helpful for all class of individuals. Better than never, though I am quite late in start reading this one. I realized this publication from my I and dad suggested this ebook to discover.
