

Pouring Ketchup Hurt Stories Between Hope.

By Dennis Cook

WestBowPress. Paperback. Condition: New. 208 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.7in. When hurt imposes its crabby will on our lives, many of us lock up the scars in our private journals. We write down stuff that is for our eyes only. It's a safe place to hide our fears, failures, and frustrations with ourselves, our friends, and even God. Journals are never meant to be read to the world, because if we did, they would reveal who we really are. Nobody really wants to undress their soul in front of others, to be made fun of—me included. Somewhere behind the halleluiahs, praise the Lords, and God is good stuff, there is this real place that only our journals have enough grace to accept. It's a place where 1+1 doesn't equal 2. It's a place where you mix red and blue and get gray. It's a place where you are mad at God and feel He's mad at you. That's what journals hold, the stories of our lives—not the way we always want them but the way they really are. When God invited me to write a book exposing my journal to the world, I politely rejected Him. Okay, not really...

Complete guideline! It's this kind of great read through. It is probably the most incredible pdf I actually have read through. It's been developed in an extremely straightforward way and it is simply soon after I finished reading this book through which actually modified me, affected the way I really believe.
