

My Eighty Years (Paperback)

By Robert Blatchford

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . From the AUTHOR S PRELUDE MONTAIGNE touches shrewdly one of the autobiographer s difficulties: When all is summed up a man never speaks of himself without loss. A man s accusations of himself are always believed; his praises never. But it is worse than that, at least for a modern, for amongst us it is thought bad taste for a man to speak of himself at all. Still, it is permitted to write of women and men we have met and of things we have seen, provided we do not thrust our own ego grossly forward. One may, given due measure of tact and modesty, tell the story of one s life without offensive claims or confessions. And that is what this book must be: a story, true in substance and in fact. If it turn out to be a love story that may not be an unpardonable fault, since most lives would, to greater or less extent, fall under such a classification, and a real love story, honestly told, without sentimentality or vainglory, may prove interesting, or at...
