TOTO S MERRY WINTER (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 1887. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . IT was evening, -a good, old-fashioned winter evening, cold without, warm and merry within. The snow was falling lightly, softly, with no gusts of wind to trouble it and send it whirling and drifting hither and thither. It covered the roof with a smooth white counterpane, tucking it in neatly and carefully round the edges; it put a tall conical cap on top of the pump, and laid an ermine fold over his long and impressive nose. Myriads of curious little flakes pattered softly-oh! very softly-against the windows of the cottage, pressing against the glass to see what was going on inside, and saying, Let us in! let us in! please do! But nobody seemed[8] inclined to let them in, so they were forced to content themselves with looking. Indeed, the aspect of the kitchen was very inviting, and it is no wonder that the little cold flakes wanted to get in. A great fire was crackling and leaping on the hearth. The whole room seemed to glow and glitter: brass saucepans, tin platters, glass window-panes, all cast their very brightest glances toward the fire, to show him that they appreciated his efforts.
