Reviews

A fresh e book with an all new viewpoint. It is really simplistic but unexpected situations in the 50 % from the book. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Excerpt: . . . SERVICES AT THE dedication Of The jvii3ion Jshapee OF THE Church of the Saviour. At 3: 30 oclock P. M. , the appointed hour of the DedicatoryServices, the New Chapel in Willow Place was crowded with the teachers and pupils of the School, and with the parents of the children and other friends of the Mission from the immediate and more distant parts of the city. The assembled audience, occupying all the settees and chairs, and filling the aisles, the small apartments connected with the main room, and every open space about the platform or near the entrance, was one of marked interest. In front of the desk, and in the centre, were the classes with their instructors, while around them, on all sides, were gathered the still larger number of those who had been drawn by their sympathy with the occasion to participate in the proceedings of the hour. Among these latter were seen many of the members of the Church of the Saviour, who had been generous patrons of the enterprise, or who had been long and honorably identified with the history of the parent Society, or who had, though for a shorter time, actively engaged in its various labors of usefulness. The desk and platform were richly ornamented with vases, baskets and pots of flowers, which were given to the children at the close of the service. The early day had been somewhat cloudy and rainy, but it had cleared before...
