Excerpt from Addresses: In the Reporting Style of Graham s Standard Phonography Gentlemen of the trans-mississippi Exposition and Fellow Citizens: It is with great pleasure that I meet once more the people of Omaha, whose wealth of welcome is not altogether unfamiliar to me, and whose warm hearts have before touched and moved me. For this renewed manifestation of your regard, and for the cordial reception of to-day, mv heart responds with profound gratitude and a deep appreciation which I cannot con ceal, and which the language of compliment is inadequate to convey. My greeting is not alone to your city and the State of Nebras ka, but to the people of all the States of the trans-mississippi group participating here, and I cannot withhold congratulations on the evidences of their prosperity furnished by this great Exposition. If testimony were needed to establish the fact that their pluck has not deserted them, and that prosperity is again with them, it is found here. This picture dispels all doubt.
