

The Keys to Fanny (Paperback)

By Sally Wahl Constain

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . I m thirteen today, and I wish I could turn time all the way back to my twelfth birthday.before things began to change. A young girl s dream takes her further than she ever imagined in Sally Wahl Constain s epic debut novel, The Keys to Fanny. An insightful glimpse into a time when women were denied even the most basic education, its strong characters will inspire audiences long after the last page is finished. When her mother dies, thirteen-year-old Fanny is unceremoniously placed in charge of the household until her father remarries. When he does, however, it is to a woman whose scheming results in Fanny s engagement to her cruel step-cousin. Devastated at the thought of her upcoming marriage, Fanny s Aunt Freda offers her secret passage to America. Fanny now faces the most important choice of her life: flee the only home she s ever known and risk never seeing her family again, or marry a boy she despises. Forbidden to learn how to read and write in her village, a Jewish shtetl near Kiev, Fanny s dream of...
