Booksurge Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. Freedom Drudge (illustrator). 206 pages. The story of a boy and his hallucinations. In search of a cure for the poison that is slowly killing him, Riggs Bombay, the boy who is not afraid of one single thing, sets off in a lung-shaped airship, his toxic hallucinations in tow. While navigating through physical, mental, and spiritual realms, Riggs discovers a most peculiar book, which drives his quest to the farthest reaches of the universe. There, despite the efforts of power-hungry scoundrels, eccentric philosophers, insatiable spirits, and creepy old men, Riggs must deliver the book into the hands of the one person who wants absolutely nothing to do with it! Best classified as a fairy-tales for adults, The Adventures of the Imagination of Periphery Stowe begins in a world learning to cope without eternal youth, and ends in the ancient mind of Periphery Stowe himself. Ages ago, Stowe discovered the secret of eternal youth, but he botched the process just as folks were starting to get used to it. Riggs Bombay journeys through the mind of Periphery Stowe, a mind that some suspect encapsulates the whole of reality. Spiritual agencies, intent on keeping death right where it belongs, pursue Riggs and his four lovable hallucinations through space and time as he attempts to deliver Stowe's old storybook to the ultimate source of this twisted and endearing universe. What Riggs does not know is that the source and the book are one-in-the-same: Stowe's storybook turns out to be The Adventures of the Imagination of Periphery Stowe itself. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
