All he can see is the rain coming down, oops, all of a sudden the lightning flashes so brightly that it looks like his bedroom is on fire, the thunder rumbles so loudly, he is so frightened. He jumps back into bed and covers his head. Then he notices that it has stopped raining and all he can hear is his heart pounding from his sudden fright. He lies there trying to calm down and suddenly he has a wonderful thought. He has plans to ask his Dad if he would take him horseback riding the following Saturday morning. His Dad agrees and said it was a great idea. When Saturday morning arrives he and his Dad are off for a fun day of horseback riding through the woods. They are having a great time until Nathan's horse decides it is time for a rough ride, Nathan is so scared, and what shall Nathan do to get his horse to stop? Then he remembers, and all's well that ends well. But wait; there is more excitement ahead for Nathan and his two best friends John and Andy.
