By A Francis Raymond

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A key is .a talisman to access the promise of an unknown treasure inside a mysterious locked box. .a code for technology with the potential to save a world that may be too controlling to let itself be saved. .a winding mechanism for an antique clock that connects two restless and out-of-place lives across generations. .a symbolic papier-mache gift of affection between young brothers who must weather a fierce parental storm. .a long-lost sliver of rusted metal that carries more value in the conferred stories it holds than in its function. .a nonsensical phrase that may be one woman s ticket off the soon-to-be abandoned red planet and its certain death. .a weary soldier s reflection under a firework-lit sky on the author of America s beloved revolutionary anthem. .a stolen instrument used by a young mother for the love of a son whose curse may be his way to freedom. A key is a major plot device or a minor mention in the language of storytelling, presented here in eight short stories by members of the Frederick Writers Salon.
