That all he ever said to the saidAmbassadourconcerningCaboCorfi, was, that he looked upon the Cafe as to that place, to be very much differing from that of Cabo Verd j and lo much, as that if he had given Order for the taking thereof, very much might have been said for the justification thereof. And to the like effect doth he the said Envoy Extraordinary speak in his Memorial: That suppose his Majeie hath permitted his Subjects to endeavour to recover the possession thereof, it could not be theught strange, nor could this State have had any just cause of Complaint or Grievance thereat: for she English had notonely a bare liberty of Trading, or of having a factory at that place, ( as at several others upon that Coast ) but one Thomas Cnspe, chief Agent for the English j--j.Company, at the earnest invitation of the: . King King...
