Daystar Publishing, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 214 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A preacher once said, Everyone is looking for peace. Everyone wants to take a deep breath and release a sigh of relief that is not just on the outside, but on the inside. That s what we can have as Christians, but we have to appropriate what God has given to us to have that. This book will take you through a journey that will plow the ground of your heart, lay a new foundation of financial principles based on the word of God, and help enable you to weather the inevitable financial storms of life - with peace. It doesn t matter if your checking account is overflowing or empty, peace comes from knowing your footing is sure with every choice you make in your stewardship. No longer do you have to feel like the double-minded man tossed to and fro, uncertain about every decision. You can raise your shield of faith against each fiery dart by resting on the scriptural principles found within Faith and Finance - Peace With or Without Prosperity. Excerpts: - Money reveals the love of our heart. Money reveals the pride in our heart. Money reveals whether we want to do it God s way, or our way. This is not anything new. It started out with Cain. Cain wanted to do it his way. - How many people have heard the story about the drunk who got his paycheck and drank it away leaving a starving family at home? What about the man who bought a sports car, went golfing every weekend, went out to eat with his friends weekly and when he died he left his family with piles...
