By Marcel Daane Ms

Marcel Daane. Paperback. Condition: New. 298 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. Headstrong Performance is a breakthrough book that challenges traditional views about business, leadership, and performance linking the benefits of nutrition and exercise with the power of neuroscience to optimize performance in executives. In today's dynamic business climate, despite technological advances, executives spend more time at work than ever before. Faster moving markets, shorter deadlines, constant change, and tighter budgets, all mean greater pressure and increased energy demands. Headstrong Performance explores the research behind the deterioration of executive performance as a result of stress mismanagement and reveals the neuroscience behind stress and poor health behaviors commonly witnessed in the workplace and demonstrates how these coping strategies result in employee disengagement, decreased business performance, and subsequently a bottom-line that suffers. Moving beyond the research, this book also provides a number of highly effective, health performance strategies that will enable today's professionals to remain on top of their game and work towards improved sustainable business performance for years to come.
