

Daughters Day: A Father's Memories of Tender Moments (Paperback)

By Graham Porter

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Filled with joy and tenderness, Daughters Day by national bestselling author, essayist, and humorist Graham Porter shares the message that parenting is the most rewarding experience anyone will ever have. While it's not, perhaps, all fun and games, with affection and playfulness, each day of being a parent is an opportunity to celebrate childhood moments-big and small-that in the grand scheme of life, are the things we remember most. A lively work of creative non-fiction, Porter's take on parenting is that the key to raising a happy family is to focus on the positive and to always find reasons to laugh and smile. For a father of four, and a grandfather of eight-with each of whom he enjoys a close relationship-he's had quite a bit of fodder. In twenty-two heartwarming vignettes, with titles like The Adventure Begins, Home Sweet Home, The Loving Cup, and Cottage, Farewell, Porter pays homage to the particular delights of fatherhood, as well as his parenting philosophy that there are teachable moments in every experience. It's been his honor to rescue his...
