The greater part of us spend a lot of our lives making progress toward these things, supposing they are the keys to satisfaction and true serenity, just to find that once we get them, we continue needing the following thing. There s dependably a next craving holding up to be satisfied, with joy dangling like a carrot simply out of our span. We generally need more; it appears, with regards to the outside world. What s more, I m certain we as a whole know individuals who appear to have it everything except don t appear to be cheerful.
