There is mass panic and widespread devastation. What has happened to all the missing people? Loved ones have disappeared! All the children are missing! There are massive pile-ups on the highways with empty cars and other cares are filled with injured or dead people from all the wrecks. The streets look like a war zone! Was it an alien invasion or an attack of the zombies? Maybe they are all just hiding somewhere, because people cant just vanish into thin air! Is there a common thread for allthe missing people? Could it be the glorious appearing of Jesus Christ at the catching away or the Rapture of the Church? The one thing all the missing have in common is that there were true Christian, all were born-again believers. What has happened with all certainty is. the Rapture of the Church! If you have missed the Rapture of the Church, this book will help guide you through the tough days ahead and will provide insight into what will transpire on earth during the Tribulation Period. If the Rapture...
