He finds a Harlem greatly changed from his former boyhood home, overrun with drugs, gangs, and self-serving politicians; but also welcoming and familiar, full of the strong wills, stern codes, and the big hearts he remembers.He might think he can get away with being just a simple tavern owner back in the old neighborhood, but when trouble comes along in the form of a murdered Japanese diplomat and a missing call girl, Devil Barnett answers. The cops, the Harlem political machine, and Korean gangster bosses are all pressuring Devil to find out who killed the man and shot up a Harlem brothel, but Devil doesn t work for anyone anymore unless he wants to, and he doesn t like being pressured.
