Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Mit Ranzel Und Wanderstab: Eine Schulerwanderung Durch Den Nordlichen Schwarzwald Emil Frommel was a native of South Germany. Born at Karlsruhe, the capital of the grand-duchy of Baden, on January 5, 1828, as the son of the director of the ducal art-gallery of that place, he received his preparatory instruction in the gymnasium of his native town. At the universities of Halle, Erlangen, and Heidelberg, he devoted himself to the study of divinity. In 1850, he was called as vicar to the village of Alt Lussheim near Schwetzingen (Baden), whence four years later he went as vicar to Karlsruhe, his native town. In 1864, he accepted a call to Barmen, that great industrial center of Westphalia, and five years later the position of military chaplain to the Berlin garrison. Hardly had he become familiar with his new surroundings, when, in July 1870, the Franco-German war broke out. As a field-chaplain he followed the army into France, camping amidst his beloved blue soldier boys during the siege of Strassburg (Alsace), and preaching to them, after the surrender of...

Reviews

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You won't feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
