Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Award-winning and Amazon best-selling author John Fennell s second novel, The Pursuit is a continuance of the first novel, The Diary. Both novels frame the action series Legends of the Vacaras. Once again, the Legends prove they are up to the challenge when they confront a race of super humans, Zerdroids, led by Maurice Emil. These genetically enhanced humans, bred for generations in Russia, invade the Legends turf in America and are after one thing-John Vacara. Due to an injury after the D-Day invasion, John was captured by the Nazis and given a life-saving surgery by Nadia Vogt. A serum is applied to his brain, making him the world s leading mentalist. Along with periodic applications and John s natural gift, he is sought after by Germany s most infamous madman. Author von Luther is convinced John is the key to his goal: world domination. Von Luther teams up with Maurice Emil to hunt down John Vacara. John Vacara s wife, Pauline, was a much easier target, so Maurice, along with his Zerdroids, kidnap Pauline, knowing John would scour the world over to find her. The Zerdroids created diversions in nearby locations, thus making it easy to take Pauline from Wolf Summit compound located west of a small town in West Virginia. The adventure takes you from the family farm to The Foundation compound. The chase leads John to the docks of Baltimore where a mysterious and highly advanced flying machine intervenes and takes Pauline from her kidnapers and in a split-second disappears into the sky. Before the flying machine takes off, it hovers just above John and Nadia, dropping a metal plate that directs them to Havana, Cuba where...
