This positive, uplifting, and inspirational novel is set in Paris, France and Monaco. When fate hands you the perfect woman, it's easy to know what to do. For aristocrat, Hugo de La Laville, life is a little more complicated. He has three perfect, potential fiancEes. Hugo is a writer and property heir, who's just been dumped by his movie star girlfriend. Heartbroken Hugo feels grief as though he's just been through a divorce. He isn't ready to begin dating again, meeting new single women, let alone consider family life. His best friend conspires with his sister seeing he needs to progress from this slump, into a happy relationship. They decide to have a competition to find him the perfect girlfriend and mend his broken heart. Fleur, Hugo's high school sweetheart; Tabby, a jewelry designer from London, England; and Sophia, a married, passionate New Yorker, are chosen - unawares - as contenders for this larger than life, The Bachelor, style experiment....
