The Mysticism Of Words Second For by Vicissitudes political its formative conditions disappeared so that it stood there enigmatical and by Devotion as divine revered. Thus Jewish Hopes were read as Prophecies, And Jewish Adjectives we print as Names, And Eastern Poems seem Cosmologies, And Commentaries make the wildest claims. And who would think that mere Philology had sundered men in fierce religious fight yet they who Christ, Messiah, Buddha say all mean Anointed by the Holy Light. But though hard Dogmas thus may be explained this does not language-beauties depreciate; What worthy soul from Poetry refrained, Where Symbolism sits throned in regal State or are there treasures of the Human Race more beautiful than Home or Holiness O blind were he who found in them no trace of a peculiar, deeper sacredness. Thus though Symbolic habits have misled those who through Texts have sought to reach to God, yet how short-sighted were his soul who said that Mysticism is foolishness or fraud. About the Publisher
