Sherry L. Hoffman, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A full color (24 pages) paperback 8.5 x 8.5 bedtime story about being grateful and saying goodnight. Written by Sherry L. Hoffman, Illustrated by Jacqueline L. Challiss Hill ISBN-13:978-0-692-90938-6 Juvenile Fiction/Parent and Family/Bedtime/Thankfulness (From the back cover) Saying good night and being thankful are two important parts of a loving bedtime routine. Families play a vital role in building and supporting children s sense of security and comfort. Through sequencing events of which children can expect to follow every night, parents help to develop a feeling of relaxation, transitioning their children to a night of restful sleep. This bedtime story is one with a poetic quality with soothing illustrations and design, which help to carry readers along their own special journey of making special memories with their families. My most favorite time with children has always been those twilight moments where the wiggles and giggles give way to their softer, more contemplative side. Winding down for bedtime always gave me a peek into their day, and the ever-increasing growth of their heart and imagination. Warm cuddle time fosters their appreciation, and provides a wonderful opportunity to learn and express gratitude. Not only does Grateful for You, Good Night help you to do just that, it also opens the joys of the sweeter side of parenting. Illustrations by Jacqueline L. Challiss Hill provide a loving visual stage for the text to dance upon, and together make a great nighttime routine. Darleen Wohlfeil, Story Monsters Ink magazine Mrs. Hoffman has captured the feelings that parents have when putting their children to bed. It is a treasured time that creates and embeds memories that will last a lifetime. After reading this lovely children s book,...
