Excerpt from Report of the Proceedings at the Memorial Meeting in Honor of the Late Mr. Joseph Andrew: Held at the Rooms of the Boston Art Club, on the Evening of May 17, 1873 Looking over the work executed by our friend during his long artistic career, we shall at first perhaps incline to be surprised that there are to be found among it so few works of any pretension. But we must not allow ourselves to judge him from this fact. His ambition, as I have already remarked, soared higher, but the hard task of life chained him to the clay, and fettered the pinions of his genius. Of all artistic careers, that of a line engraver in modern times is perhaps the most thankless. And it was upon line engraving especially that he had set his heart. More popular and more expeditious methods of reproduction have almost succeeded in supplanting this difficult and severe art, and even in Europe it is only supported in its struggle for existence by artificial means, such as the aid of governments and princes, and...
