DEED. 1, The operative words of release in a simple quit claim deed are, remise, release and quit claim. Where the words bargain, sell and quit claim are employed, they operate not merely to release, but to transfer any interest which the grantor possesses at the execution of the deed. Touchard v. Crow, 130. 2. Section twenty-nine of the Act concerning Conveyances, which authorizes an instrument which has been proved in the manner prescribed in that act to be read in evidence with the certificate without further proof, is not limited to instruments to be thereafter executed. Clark v. Troy, 219. S. Thus, where a deed was executed in September, 1847, and in December, 1860, proof of the execution was made by...
